This week, Denim Tears is delivering its last Fall/Winter 2024 collection, and Gentle Monster is already selling out of its red-hot "Jewelry" eyewear. We are also seeing old and ongoing collaborations thrive as we head into 2025—JWA x Uniqlo and Human Made x Clarks are among the long-standing partnerships still going strong. 18 East's UK debut, FKA Twig's workout collection with On Running, and a retro Space Age-inspired watch by C2H4 make up some of the new product partnerships. Check out our top picks for this week's product releases below.
